DO NOT MISS...

The two Romanesque hermitages you are visiting during this route. Sant Salvador del Corb is known to be the smallest chapel in the Catalan Romanesque. Castell-llebre hermitage is located on the top of an impressive cliff and it dominates the gorge of Oliana.

DID YOU KNOW...

Roc de la Presó (or Picapoll) was used as a prison during the Carlist Wars? This rock is surrounded by great cliffs and it only has one access point, which would turn it to a perfect location for a prison.
