DO NOT MISS...

The smallest Romanesque chapel in Catalonia: Sant Salvador del Corb. Many stories and legends are told about this chapel. According to one of them, a viper lived there and protected the chapel against thieves and criminals but at Christmas Day it became harmless and didn't bite.

DID YOU KNOW...

The troglodytic living space of Casa del Corb stayed inhabited until the beginning of XX century? Due to the shape of the rock, just one wall was enough to protect the large living space. Inside it there is still a stone oven and several rooms.

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

Roca del Corb is a huge rocky mass raised in the SW side of the mountains of Sant Honorat. All along the route you can see several troglodytique constructions, you will climb to Sant Salvador del Corb Romanesque chapel and you will find out Roc de Cogul.

From ❶ Hotel Can Boix follow the NW path. Shortly after, there is a crossroad: take the path on the left (SW) and follow the signals to "Ruta del Corb". Again there is another ❷ crossroad. On the left, leave the path to Peramola behind and continue to the right. After 15 min you will arrive to Grau de Porta. Follow the path on the right until ❸ Quatre Camins. In this crossroad, take the track on the right to Roca del Corb (N).

Go ahead in a wide track. Walk next to Forat del Corb, a curious cavity 50 m deep. Continue to ascend and get to the ❹ crossroad of Casa del Corb. Follow the same track -on the right- going around the rock at its base. In 25 m, on the left there is a rock shelter, you can go and see. Go on the track onto the left and arrive to a fork where you must turn left to Sant Salvador del Corb. Take the ascending path and follow the milestones to ❺ Sant Salvador's chapel and the summit of Agulla del Corb.

Come back to the track and go on around Roca del Corb. Leave behind a tight path (some stretches with chains) to the summit of Roca del Corb. We get to the crossroad of col of Mur. Continue on the path going around the rock. Leave the path to Cortiuda behind and get to Corral del Corb. Walk through a stretch where there is a useful chain to reach ❻ Casa del Corb. Cross a little forest and arrive to the crossroad of Casa del Corb. Here the walk around the rock is completed.

Undo the route until Quatre Camins. Now go straight on towards Roc de Cogul, just in front. Arrive to a new ❼ crossroad and take the track ahead going up to the summit of ❽ Roc de Cogul. Go back to the crossroad and take now the path on the right (E). Go along the edge of Roc de Cogul and get near Peramola. Arrive to an olive tree field, take a track on the right and arrive in Peramola. From the ❾ public washing place in Peramola go out of the village. Turn left and cross the Roser neighbourhood until the chapel. From now on follow the signals "Sant Honorat" and "Can Boix" until you arrive to ❶ Hotel Can Boix.
